

I am already listed on the Find a Practitioner page. What do I do if I have forgotten my username and password?

It is important to note that your login details are separate from the login details you use for purchasing training modules, accessing member benefits and online learning.

1. Please go to www.acnem.org
2. On the homepage you will see the tab: Find a Practitioner. Click the tab and you will then see a dropdown box – login and register. Select login.

3. Enter your email address and select 'Lost your password?'. You will then be emailed your login details. For any further questions, please contact mail@acnem.org.
